The United States Attorney charges that:

COUNT 1

During the calendar year 2002, in the Eastern District of Louisiana and elsewhere, BLAINEY J. NICHOLAS, an emergency room physician, who was a resident of the Eastern District of Louisiana, had and received gross income which exceeded the statutory minimum and that by reason of such gross income he was required by law, following the close of the calendar year 2002, and on or before April 15, 2003, to make an income tax return to the Director, Internal Revenue Service Center, at Memphis, Tennessee, in the Western District of Tennessee, or to the District Director of the Internal Revenue Service for the Internal Revenue District of the Gulf Coast, at 600 S. Maestri Place, New Orleans, Louisiana, 70130, or other proper officer of the United States, stating specifically the items of his gross income and any deductions and credits to which he was entitled; that well-knowing and believing all of the foregoing, he did willfully fail to make an income tax return to said Director of the Internal Revenue Service Center, to said District Director of the Internal Revenue Service, or to any other proper officer of the United States; in violation of Title 26, United States Code, Section 7203.
